

Where DIRECTV goes, so goes the news

DNews: launched new news signal from Latin America for Latin America

Buenos Aires, July 2022 - DNews has joined DIRECTV's programming offer and its DIRECTV GO streaming platform. It is the first news signal from Latin America for Latin America, with all the news to understand what is happening in the region and the world.

DNews has live broadcasts from Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Uruguay. Politics, economics, education, health, environment, music and technology will be the protagonists of the signal's programming. It will also broadcast distinguished documentaries on a variety of subjects in association with prestigious international networks.

In the year of the FIFA World Cup, DNews will be the news signal of Qatar 2022, with live coverage and special programs.

DNews includes journalists and production teams in each country in charge of programming: Darío Mizrahi (Argentina), Lucía López (Chile), Estefanía Meira Serantes (Colombia), César García (Ecuador), Carmen Alvarado (Peru) and Pablo Londinsky (Uruguay).

The Spanish-language news signal is available on DIRECTV channel 700 and 1700 HD for all prepaid and postpaid customers. It is also available through DIRECTV GO, for DIRECTV satellite TV customers, as well as for those who subscribe to DIRECTV GO as a stand-alone product.
