

OnDIRECTV celebrates 60 years of The Rolling Stones with an exclusive documentary series

My Life as a Rolling Stone premieres on the entertainment channel OnDIRECTV and on the DIRECTV GO streaming platform on Thursday, August 4 from 9 p.m. with a double episode.

August 2022 - To celebrate 60 years of The Rolling Stones, OnDIRECTV (channel 201 & 1201 HD) will exclusively air the four-part documentary series My Life as a Rolling Stone, which dedicates one episode to the life of each of its members: Mick Jagger, Keith Richards, Ronnie Wood and Charlie Watts. The documentary will also be available through the DIRECTV GO streaming platform.

My Life as a Rolling Stone tells the story of one of the world's greatest rock bands like never before. It explores The Rolling Stones through the eyes of each member, delving into their personalities, passions and memories of the past 60 years. Each episode presents an intimate portrait of Mick Jagger, Keith Richards, Ronnie Wood and Charlie Watts and shows how these individual geniuses came together to create the music that has been the soundtrack to millions of people's lives.

The documentary series presents unparalleled access to footage of the band, featuring newly filmed interviews with its members and a stellar cast of artists who have loved and been inspired by The Rolling Stones, including Rod Stewart, Tina Turner, Slash and Steven Tyler, among many others. It includes previously unpublished footage and exclusive stories from Mick Jagger, Keith Richards and Ronnie Wood interwoven with new and archival features and presentations. The story of Charlie Watts, who sadly passed away in August 2021, is told through tributes from bandmates, fans and friends, along with archival interviews with the drummer.

My Life as a Rolling Stone is directed by Oliver Murray (The Quiet One), Clare Tavernor (Keith Richards: A Culture Show Special), James Giles (Can You Feel It - How Dance Music Conquered the World) and series director/producer Sam Anthony (Me, Myself and I with Ryan Gander); and executive producer Steve Condie (Keeler, Profumo, Ward and Me, Thatcher: A Very British Revolution, Skinhead). The series is produced by Mercury Studios.

"In My Life as a Rolling Stone we tried to capture the brilliance of Mick, Keith, Ronnie and Charlie: their dazzling charisma and musical gifts, but also the special alchemy that has made the Stones an irresistible cultural powerhouse and the band everyone else really wants to be," commented Steve Condie, executive producer of the series.

"I know music lovers will enjoy the series on OnDIRECTV and DIRECTV GO," said Willard Tressel, OnDIRECTV's General Manager. He continued, "We invite Rolling Stones fans who are not DIRECTV subscribers to try DIRECTV GO free for 7 days and join us in celebrating 60 years of unforgettable music and the legendary artists who made it possible."

"As the Rolling Stones travel the Globe once again, they celebrate 60 years of incredible music," said Alice Webb, CEO of Mercury Studios. "And there is no better partner to share the band's dynamic, and their personal stories, with Latin America than DIRECTV. They are in for a real treat."

With two episodes each week, My Life as a Rolling Stone can be seen on Thursday, August 4 and 11 from 9 p.m. and will also be available through the DIRECTV GO streaming platform. Afterwards, it will be available on demand on DIRECTV GO.
