

Introducing DSports Radio, the new sports FM station

The radio station will broadcast exclusively sports programming and will provide coverage of the 2022 FIFA World Cup in Qatar. D Sports Radio is the only FM radio station authorized to broadcast all the matches of the most important soccer event.

Buenos Aires, June 13, 2022. Tomorrow, D Sports Radio will be on air at the 103.1 station. After a trademark usage agreement, the sports radio station will be launched with soccer as the main protagonist. In addition, the radio station has been granted FIFA's rights to broadcast all the matches of the World Cup.

Its varied programming line-up will feature renowned hosts such as Gastón Recondo, Ariel Senosiain, Marcelo Benedetto, Diego Korol, Gustavo Kuffner, Toti Pasman, Sergio Goycochea and Daniel Retamozo. It will also have special guest contributions by Juan Pablo Varsky throughout the programming and Fabián "Poroto" Cubero.

Weekly programs will be broadcast from morning to the return home and will be complemented with broadcasts of the Argentine Professional Soccer League, CONMEBOL Libertadores and Sudamericana. The narration of the games will be provided by Juan Pablo Varsky, Gustavo Kuffner, Ariel Senosiain, Bárbara Roskin, Manu Olivari, Hernán Feler and Ariel Helueni, among others.

All the programming will include a selection of songs so that sports and music can coexist organically in the radio.

Pablo Jiménez will be in charge of the direction of D Sports Radio, while Martín Rubio will be joining as Artistic Manager.
