

Nadie dice Nada* will experience the World Cup with DIRECTV and DGO from Qatar

Starting on Thursday, November 17, Nico Occhiato's team will experience the previews of the matches, the atmosphere in the stadiums and the capital city of Qatar, to which thousands of fans will be arriving. The broadcasts will be from Monday to Friday, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. simultaneously on OnDIRECTV (channel 201 and 1201 HD) and Luzu TV. In addition, from Sunday 20, from 10:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., a special edition will be broadcasted exclusively on DSports (channel 610 and 1610 HD). All the content will be live and On Demand on DGO, DIRECTV's streaming platform.

Buenos Aires, November 14. Nadie dice Nada, the show hosted by Nico Occhiato on Luzu TV, will cover the 2022 FIFA World Cup Qatar with DIRECTV and DGO, in what will become a true multiplatform experience that millions of people will be able to enjoy, with the first broadcast from Doha this Thursday, November 17 at 10 a.m. simultaneously on OnDIRECTV and Luzu TV.

In addition, as of Sunday, November 20, DIRECTV and DGO will broadcast exclusively on DSports the special Luzu Mundial from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Nico and his team formed by Nati Jota, Flor Jazmín Peña and Nacho Elizalde will be in Doha throughout the tournament to follow in detail the performance of La Scaloneta and the passion that the greatest soccer event awakens. With them, you will be able to experience the pre-matches, the atmosphere in the stadiums and get to know the Qatari city.

Also, in anticipation of the opening ceremony on November 20 and the first match of the national team against Saudi Arabia on November 22 at 7 a.m., DIRECTV offers a new way to experience the sport through two specials.

With this multiscreen proposal, millions of people will be able to experience the passion of soccer through their cell phone, tablet, smart TV or computer live or whenever they want and wherever they want, since all the content will be available on the streaming platform DGO live and On Demand.

The first special broadcast of each day will take place from November 17, Monday to Friday, during the usual time slot of the cycle, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., Argentina time, simultaneously on OnDIRECTV and Luzu TV.

On the other hand, the second edition, Luzu Mundial, will be broadcast exclusively on DSports from Sunday 20, Monday to Friday from 10:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., through DIRECTV and DGO, the streaming platform of the leading entertainment company that will broadcast live all 64 matches of the World Cup. This special will also be available on Saturday, November 26, when the Argentine National Team plays.

Those who wish to access the exclusive content of Nadie dice Nada and are not yet DIRECTV customers can register here and download the DGO app.

The content will be available in Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Uruguay.
