*On Monday, February 5 at 9:30 p.m., the entertainment channel OnDIRECTV and the live TV and streaming platform DGO will premiere a romantic comedy starring Johnny Flynn (Lovesick) and Roisin Gallagher (The Dry).*

February 2024 – DIRECTV, the leading media tech company in connectivity, entertainment and information in Latin America, will air The Lovers, a romantic comedy set in Belfast, starring Johnny Flynn (Lovesick) and Roisin Gallagher (The Dry), about two complete opposites who, nevertheless, are attracted to each other.

The Lovers follows Janet (Roisin Gallagher), a moody and hilarious Belfast supermarket worker who doesn't seem to care much about anything, including her life, who meets Seamus (Johnny Flynn), a handsome, self-centered political journalist who seems to have a perfect life in London and a famous girlfriend. Although they instantly clash, they are somehow strangely attracted to each other and it soon becomes clear that they are falling in love.

The 6-episode series, which will be available through the exclusive OnDIRECTV channel and on the DGO live TV and streaming service, also features performances by Conleth Hill (Game of Thrones) as Janet's supermarket boss Philip and Alice Eve (Star Trek Into Darkness), who plays Frankie, Seamus' girlfriend.

The Lovers was written and created by award-winning playwright David Ireland (Cyprus Avenue, Ulster American) and directed by BAFTA winner Justin Martin (Together, Prima Facie).

The romantic comedy can be watched exclusively in Latin America starting Monday, February 5 at 9:30 p.m., with one episode every week at the same hour, on OnDIRECTV, on channels 201 and 1201 HD of DIRECTV's programming grid, and via streaming on DGO.

The episodes will then be available on DGO's on demand catalog for watching anytime, anywhere from a computer, smartphone, Smart TV or tablet.
